THE LOUISIANA STALLION AWARD PROGRAM

(Source: from the LTBA By-Laws)

[The LTBA By-Laws provide the following definition for eligibility and registration of a stallion standing in Louisiana. You should read the By-Laws very carefully and sure yourself that the stallion your are registering is eligible for registration.]

PART C. BREEDING AND AWARDS

Section 3. (Revised 6-6-15)

Louisiana Stallion Award Eligibility. A stallion standing in Louisiana is defined as a stallion domiciled year-round in Louisiana with the purpose of covering mares in a breeding season. The owner of a stallion standing in Louisiana must register the stallion with the LTBA within 30 days of entry in the state and/or change of ownership.

To be eligible for stallion owner's award as set forth by the LTBA Board of Directors, the stallion must have been enrolled in the Stallion Award program by payment of the required fee during the calendar year in which the foal was conceived.

To remain eligible for the Stallion Awards such stallion(s) shall not depart the state except:

(1) When the LTBA approves the stallion's departure to the Southern Hemisphere for the Southern Hemispheric breeding season.

(2) If the stallion in Louisiana requires medical treatment at a veterinary facility outside Louisiana.

(3) If a stallion has participated in the stallion award program for four consecutive years he is entitled to leave without penalty. If a stallion has not participated in the stallion award program for four consecutive years, the stallion will be awarded according to a schedule established by the executive committee of the LTBA.

(4) If pensioned

All departures must be reported in writing or electronically to the LTBA office before the stallion leaves the state.

With a medical departure, the LTBA office must be notified in writing or electronically within 72 hours of that departure. Upon the stallion's release to travel by the attending veterinarian and to be in compliance, the stallion must be returned to Louisiana within ten (10) days of the medical release. Written notice of the return shall be given to the LTBA. It is the responsibility of the stallion's owner to provide documentation relevant to this situation if requested by the LTBA office.

The LTBA must also be notified in writing or electronically of a stallion returning from the Southern Hemisphere to continue his domicile in the State of Louisiana. All domicile changes within the State must also be reported to the LTBA in writing or electronically.
